And this?

I am searching for family for my husband. His name is Leon Meldon Aycock. He was reared in Wilkinson County Georgia in a little town named Gordon. We have documented proof that the Wilkinson County Aycocks are related to a Jesse Aycock in Wayne County North Carolina. We have a lot of loose ends any help you can give would be appreciated. We've seen a family line on ancestry. com by we cannot confirm with proven documents.

WILLIAM T. COKER

Funeral Services For Mr. W. T. Coker

Funeral services for Mr. W. T. Coker, 72, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Aycock, Sunday evening at eleven o'clock were held at Andersonville Monday afternoon in the Primitive Baptist Church conducted by Rev. J. B. Laswrence, pastor of the Episcopal Church of Americus. Mr. Coker was one of the oldest citizens of this county, was noted for his high sense of honor, and for many years had been one of it's most staple citizens. He had been in ill health for some time and for several years had resided with his children, his wife having died many years ago.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jesse Aycock of Andersonville, and Mrs. Cleve Pennington of Cairo, Ga.; four sons, Messrs, Early Coker, Edgar Coker and E. W. Coker of this county and Mr. Charles Coker of South Carolina.

[Note: William T. Coker [1858 - 1930] is buried in Andersonville City Cemetery beside his wife, Nancy G. Coker [1860 - 1902] and his daughter, Minnie M. Aycock [10-20-1892 - 3-22-1935]

THERE ARE SCADS OF INFORMATION AVAILABLE ON WILLIAM AYCOCK THAT MARRIED REBECCA PACE.

THERE IS NO PROOF YET THAT WILLIAM IS THE FATHER OF JESSE. MY LINE IS TIMOTHY, THE 5TH CHILD OF JESSE. I HAVE ABOUT 30 PAGES OF INFORMATION ON JAMES AND WILLING TO SWAP. WE MAY HAVE THE SAME INFORMATION OR CAN COMPARE WHAT WE HAVE.

MY E-MAIL IS CWMEA@AOL.COM

Message: Just a little information on the descendents of William and Rebecca. My family came from their son James through James Jr., Seaborn, Seaborn Jr. and Jesse A. who was my great grandfather. I'm not sure where the information came from that you have about the large plantations before the Civil War, but our line was only farmers. The family home is still standing in Claiborne Parish, Louisiana and still owned by the family. It's a large dog-trot house, not a plantation home. From my years in North Carolina, I found that the Aycocks who stayed on the east coast managed to climb to a slightly higher rung on the social tree than those who headed south and took a right in Georgia. You may be able to find more information on this part of the family in Perry County, Alabama. Seaborn Aycock was the sheriff there in the 1830's.

As far as I know, no one has been able to link the Thomas Aycock of the 1600's with our William who was born in 1705 in Prince George County, VA. The only connection I've been able to make is that Prince George Co. was formed from a part of Charles City County which is where Thomas was located.

Good luck on your searching

Message: Do you know the names of their children?

I have 4 but I am not at all certain I have it correct. These are the children I have:

1. Winifred Aycock (---1794)
2. Jesse Aycock (1747-1822)
3. James Aycock
4. Richard Aycock

I do not know if I have this correctly in my records or not.

Message: Donna -

I'm not sure about Jesse. My line descends from James. All the information I have shows that William and Rebecca only had three children - James b.1737, Richard b. 1739, and Winifred b. 1741. Jesse Aycock may have been the son of William Aycock of Dobbs County, NC who came to the colony in 1744 from Wales. This is not the same William that was the father of Winifred, James and Richard. William that married Rebecca Bradford died around 1765. William, possible father of Jesse is found in Dobbs County records as late as 1779. I know this all is confusing. Heaven knows I'm not sure if I've got any of it correct. Rather than confuse you (and myself) anymore, I'll just list some of the sources from my research and some that have been passed on to me from other Aycock researchers. You are probably familiar with most of them, but perhaps one or two will be new. Let me know if I can help in any other way.

"Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Vol. XIII, Charles City County Court Orders 1664-1665.
(the earliest mention of Thomas Aycock)

Fragmentary records of Prince George and Brunswick Counties, VA 1720-1742 mention William, Richard and Robert Aycock.

Message: Donna,

I have that William and Rebecca Pace Bradford had 7 children. None of them a jesse though. I also have another line of aycocks also. When a William Shaw Aycock married a Mildred Effie Aycock. Going back as far as I can with them, its slow at times but so far no connection can be made. will check for you and see if Jesse is in His line.

Message: Hi George, my line also came down from Jesse. Your Ephriam and my gggggf Simon were brothers. I have most of the family but not any thing on Ephriam other than his name and his date of birth, I think 1786 is correct. I've heard they went to Ga. but nothing from that point. My line also moved to Ga. but that was in the late 1880's. There's a new updated book about the Jesse Aycock family coming out. Charles Aycock is doing the work. He helped with Jane Aycock Cook's first book. Charles is a super guy and has more Aycock information than you can believe. If you live in Ga, next weekend Oct. 11th we're having the 3rd Calvin Aycock reunion in Baxley Ga. Your invited..Charles will be here and I know he would love to get together with you. My email address is stew8899@bellsouth.net Drop me a line with your telephone number and we can talk over the phone.

I will be glad to share info and we can both fill in a few blanks.

Waiting to hear from you.
