Will of Jesse Harper

In the name of God Amen, November 7th day 1822.

Whereas Jesse Aycock being weak in body but in perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God, do make and publish this to be my last will and testament: (viz)

In the first place I recommend my body to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner and my soul into the hands of God that gave it.

Item I lend to my wife, Patience Aycock, two feather beds and furniture, one mare by name Dimont, one plow, hoe and cutter fraim and gier, one lamb and gier, six sitting chairs, one bofat and all the furniture belonging to it. Two pots of her choice, one frying pan and spider, two pewter dishes, three Do basons - one gallon one and two gallon and two quart basons and six do plates. Two cows and calves or yearlings, four head of sheep, one flat iron, one case of knives and forks, four negroes by names of Jacob Peter and two by the name of Haner, and the house and plantation whereon I now live -- beginning at the mouth of the little swamp and runs up a bottom called the gully bottom to Elly Hooks fence containing the whole of my land up the little swamp which I shall not hereafter give off in legacies during her natural life or widowhood.

I give to my three grandsons Ervin, Ely and Elisha Aycock, sons of Ephraim Aycock, a certain tract or parcel of land beginning at a pine, James Aycock's corner and runs his line N to a corner black jack, from thence to a larger pine on the north about 60 feet, east of end of a large pine log on the north, then to upper end of pond then down to the lowest end of the great Marsh, then up the same poplar in Deans line, then with said line to stake thence to the beginning to be equally divided to them and their heirs forever.

I give to my son Simon Aycock a certain tract or parcel of land beginning at Elly Hooks fence at the head of the gully bottom and runs down the same to the mouth of the little swamp then up the great swamp to the mouth of the Cow branch then up the same to a poplar then along by the end of the old field called the Brent old field, down a glade to the Reedy branch then up the said Reedy branch to where my line crosses the branch then west to a pine then north with my line to a pine, then nearly East along Simon's new ground fence leaving Simon's part on his side and goes betwixt Simon and Timothy Aycock's houses to the head of the Poplar Branch then down the same to my line then to the beginning; to him and his heirs forever.

I give to my grandson Daniel Aycock all the balance of my land north of Simon Aycock's line to him and his heirs forever.

I give to my three grandchildren Joel, Nancy and Penelope Newsom all my land bought of John and Richard Brent as far as Simon's line with a 46 acre tract in the great Picoson to be equally divided and drawn for by a committee to them and their heirs forever.

I give to the use of the Baptist church the meeting house and the one acre of land around the same with allt he privilege of the lanes leading to the same so long as it will last.

I give to my grandson Jesse Newsome $20.

I give to my grandson John Newsome $20.

I give to my daughter Ann Newsome $25.

I give to my son Solomon Aycock $200.

I give to my son Elias Aycock $20.

I leave all my negroes that I have not lent to my wife to be sold with the balance of my estate and the money arising from the same after paying my just debts and legacies with all my notes and accounts to be equally divided among my children and grandchildren hereafter named.

I give to my son Ephraim Aycock $150 to him and his heirs forever.

I give to my son Timothy Aycock $150 to him and his heirs forever.

I give to my granddaughter Elizabeth Wilkinson $20.

I give to my granddaughter Zilpha Newsom $20.

The balance of my estate I leave to be equally divided among the whole of my grandchildren except Jesse, Johna nd Zilpha Newsom and Elizabeth Wilkinson the lawful heirs of Ann Newsom. Besides those named, the lawful heirs of Elias Aycock, also of Jesse Aycock, also of Benjamin Aycock, also of James Aycock, also of Ephraim Aycock, also Timothy Aycock, also of Simon Aycock.

After the death of my wife have the negroes and other property lent my wife Peter and Haner to be sold together and the land lent her to be rented for the above use.

I constitute and appoint my two sons James and Simon Aycock executors of this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the day and year above written.
