"Grandma Sarah West, after being left a widow, lived at her nice comfortable home alone with the negroes, contended, very industrious and strong woman until old age-- over eighty when she died I suppose in 1856. Not tall but little and straight woman. Their church was the old Primitive Baptist and their children attended the same church. Most all of their children lived to over fifty years.

They had nine children that lived to be grown and married. My grandparents moved to Baldwin County, Georgia, I guess in 1820, somewhere and grandpa died in 1835 after a few days of sickness plus age, over sixty years old. Yes, we do have a * Finly Stephens Stanly * in our family. His grandfather, Major Henry Finly Stanly, II and my husband's great grandfather James Calvin Stanly were brothers. Finly was Agriculture teacher and Principal at Pickering High School and went on to the Vernon Parish School Board as a Supervisor. I have been the Secretary at Pickering High School for 37 years and Finly was the first Principal I worked for. I have added his name to our site if you want to check it again. I might add he is a great fox hunter!

Major Henry Finly Stanley was the first Superintendent of Walton County (now Holmes County, FL) schools. He was clerk Vernon Parish, LA Police Jury 1890-1893; Treasurer of Vernon Parish Police jury 1894-1900; Treasurer of Vernon Parish School Board 1871; and Clerk of Vernon Parish Baptist Association 1872-1903.

Major, apparently well educated for his day, taught school, organized a school system for Walton Co. (now Holmes Co.) and became its first superintendent. After hurricanes wiped them out two years in a row, the Stanlys, the Turners and the Williamses (Martha & Wesley) moved together in 1860, planning on going to Texas. They stopped in Rapides Parish (which later became Vernon Parish), near Leesville, when one of the children got sick.

Notes for LUCINDA WILLIAMS:

I pulled the death certificate for Lucinda Stanley (1912 # 15771) and it does not list her parents. She is listed as being buried in Union Ridge Cemetery, Muhlenberg County. She is listed as being married, so this is either a mistake or John actually died after she did. Lucinda was 93 and died from senility. This was all of the information on the certificate.
