FELLOW FAMILY

Information supplied by Henry C. Fellow, son of Elijah

Great-grandfather, Robert Fellow (b. 1756), owned twenty-six negroes, but these he liberated under the colonization act and sent them to Haiti. Grandfather, John Fellow (b. 1793), was at the time a slave overseer of sixty slaves belonging to his cousin, Squire McKinney. McKinney was guilty of whipping one of his old slave women so unmercifully, because she did not plow enough crop in a certain time, that Grandfather relieved her of work and drove McKinney's favorite horse to the plow till it could go no farther. Grandfather received a salary of four dollars per month and had to walk four miles to and from his work before daylight and after dark. Both great-grandfather and grandfather were so convinced of the horrors of slavery that they joined Friends, became black abolitionists and later conducted stations on the "Under Ground Railroad." Grandfather (John b. 1793) and another person were appointed to take a ship load of liberated slaves to Haiti under direction of North Carolina Yearly Meeting. He later fitted out a ship load and sent to Liberia, Africa. The records show that both Great-and grandfather held land in the old North State. King George the Third granted great-grandfather (Robert, b. 1756) 120 acres with the corners a Black Gum, a White Oak, a black Jack and Red Oak. They evidently thought the trees would stand the storms of time forever. The records are to be seen this day in a well-preserved condition. Grandfather's 80 was similarly bounded. This patent was granted by Alexander Martin, Esq., our Governor, Captain-General and Commander-in-Chief at New Bern, the tenth day of November, 1984. The bound ran the course of Little River and from tree to tree. Dr. W. L. Pearson has the documents in his possession at Wichita.

Robert Fellow (b. 1756) had a family of five children, namely - John, Price, Mary, Rachel and Sallie, our great uncle and aunts. Grandfather John Fellow (b.1793), at the age of 34 married Abigal Coleman, age 17. He would ride nearly 100 miles horseback to see his young Welsh sweetheart, whose ancestors came from the coal mines of Wales, hence the Coleman. She spun, wove and made her own dresses, two breadths an a skirt. When she undertook to catch a turkey for dinner for her lover, she tripped herself in that linsey woolsey skirt and fell down in the presence of Grandfather. At the age of 45, when he quit working for Great-grandfather Robert, he was given a patrimony of $1,000. With a broken leg and a broken down constitution our grandfather John stabted out for himself, wife and three children. He loaded his small effects into a cart with uncle Robert, Aunts Rachel and Mary and came to Randolph County, Indiana. Grandfather walked most of the 600 miles and let grandfather ride in the cart with the goods and children. Grandfather bought an 80 of thin beach land near Cherry Grove and settled on it to begin
