The original was found in the Bible of Benjamin F. Nunn, son of Redding and Zelota Nunn and is currently in the possession of Betty Nunn Gray.

The above was transcribed from a copy in the manner in which it was originally written by Martha Mewborn Marble.

In addition to the above, Mrs. Gray also has the original for subscribers to repair the Woodington meeting house on 8 Jan 1855. This document is not long, but is very faded and several of the names are not readable. Those that are readable are as follows:

Whitfield Grady	$1.00
R. D. Nunn	$1.00
next name unreadable but it may be Haywood Waller Brown	.50
D. Williams	.50
John Causley (?)	.50
