Endowed 19 Dec 1888 at Logan Utah
Married to John Kunz 19 Dec 1888 at Logan Utah
Death 13 May 1900 at Bern Idaho

Lizzie (as she was called) lived in Bern with John Kunz as a plural wife, she had 6 children, Agnes Julia Parley Hazel Lucy and Lydia, the last baby Lydia died a few minutes after birth and was buried with her Mother, in the same casket, Every one was shocked at the untimely death of such a young mother, who had the welfare of her children at heart, but the Lord had another mission for her, Father told us how sad he was, losing them both and being left with 5 motherless children. But his wife Aunt Lou took the children and loved them as her own. She was indeed a mother to them.

Previous to Lizzie's death, in May 1899 she was sealed to her parents along with her brothers and sisters at the Salt Lake Temple. The names of her Brothers and sisters are, Johann, Marianna, Margaretha Christian, Fritz, Rudolph, Emma, Magdalena, Rosetta, Adolph, and Peter Boss. Lizzie was known for her sweet disposition and among her associates was a peacemaker she would injure no one's feelings she would rather be wronged than hurt some one else. She was a beautiful Alto singer, and used her sweet voice to brighten many lives, among those she loved.

While her husband John Kunz was on his mission he Bapized her, Her schooling took place at Gundliswand, she emigrated to Zion about May 1888, she lived in Bern with Uncle Will Kunz and Family and helped make cheese, ~~Father returned from his mission 16 Nov 1886 and on Dec 19 1888 she became his wife. she was the 6th wife.~~ The general condition of her health was good, her eyes were brown, her hair was auburn. Her height was 5 Ft 1 in and her weight was 125 lbs. her chest size was 36 in. she was especially interested in the rearing of her family and in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for which she gave up a home and loved ones in Switzerland. Her life was an example for her numerous posterity to emulate.

She became his wife
